

Portraits of Practice Brown Bag Lunch

Using Newspapers to Encourage Critical Thinking, Civic Participation and Personal Success in the Classroom

Are you looking for new ways to encourage critical thinking, cultivate social responsibility, and global awareness? Have you considered integrating The New York Times or another newspaper into your classroom culture?

Come hear from Kent State colleagues who are using newspapers in class, share your own experiences, or get more information about integrating news media into your courses. Join us for our newest Portraits of Practice Brown Bag Lunch:

Thursday, March 8, 12:00-1:30

Moulton Hall 2nd Floor, fpdc Lobby

R.S.V.P. by email at fpdc@kent.edu or call us at 330.672.2992.

